

PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE
United Community Corporation
124 Branford Place
Newark, New Jersey 07102

INFORMATION
BULLETINS

Friday, March 29, 1968
Volume II Number 8

GREETING

We wish to take the opportunity to express our belief that you, the delegates to this week-end Conference, will make a significant contribution to the people of the City of Newark.

TO

The eyes of the country are focused upon Newark today as you come together to discuss the burning issues confronting us all.

CONFERENCE

DELEGATES

We know that you meet, because of your belief that Newark is a good place to live, and work, and raise your children. We know your efforts here today will do much to dispel the fears that many people have about the divisiveness of the community. That you have met here, that you are giving of your best thinking, is the most eloquent testimony of your deep concern. We know that you will be successful as you begin, as participants, in one of the most important events in the history of our city. WE WISH YOU WELL.

NEWARK

REPORT

DAY CARE

The Newark Report, 1968, Part I dealing with the Day Care Program will be aired on March 31, 1968 at 4:30 p.m. over station WLIB Radio. Mrs. Mary Willis and Mrs. Edna Thomas will discuss projection of the present programs putting special emphasis on the planned summer program. Part II will be aired the following Sunday, April 7, 1968.

CRISPUS
ATTUCKS PARADE

Thousands of people stood in cool temperatures to cheer the Crispus Attucks Marchers. About 25,000 people participated in the three-hour parade, while unofficial estimates of spectators ranged from 55,000 to 100,000. In his speech, Mayor Hugh J. Addonizio said, "One of the greatest needs of the nation is to permit every man, every ethnic group and every racial group to find a "special sense of pride and satisfaction." John Thomas, the founder of the Crispus Attucks Society and -more-

INFORMATION
BULLETINS

page 2

parade, told the spectators; "We must re-dedicate ourselves to our youth, and we must eradicate racism in all forms and celebrate the fact that we are proud of what we are.

UCC DELEGATION
MEETS WITH REGIONAL OEO

A delegation of the United Community Corporation officials with representatives from their delegate agencies and area boards, met with Mr. Frank Ferro, Acting Regional Director of the OEO, to discuss the recent additional cut-back in federal funds for this fiscal year. Special emphasis was put on the serious conditions of the City of Newark in its present state, focusing on the immediate needs of the poor and underprivileged in the City of Newark.

BEST WISHES FOR A SUCCESSFUL CONFERENCE